

The November Registry

Somewhere Else

Leave the rain behind. Find your sky-cool weather and rounded terraces for truffles in Florence or sunshine by the pool in Marrakech.

In Florence, November means white truffles, long lunches and crisp walks through the city. In Marrakech, it means warm afternoons, rooftop dinners and a siesta in our new pool. Same holiday. Better experience.

Spend Thanksgiving somewhere a little less expected

Book a tour

FLORENCE

November is the month Florence goes back to its own table. The calendar turns to what the surrounding hills produce: white truffle and fresh oil. This month's feature is the sagre, the village festivals that anchor the season, and below them a trattoria, a contemporary table and a butcher.

WINTER IN FLORENCE

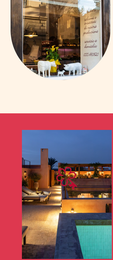
From Mid-October to February next year:
Your 4th night is half price. Your 7th is free.

Book Now

Sagre: The Village Table

Sagre, the village festivals of Tuscany, turn in November to the white truffle and the new oil, and three of them, all within an hour of Le Cure, are worth the drive.

Learn more



Trattoria da Tito

Antica Trattoria da Tito has stood on Via San Gallo since 1913, a few minutes from Abitazione, and ribollita is the dish to order there in November, once the cavolo nero has had its first frost.

Learn more

Cucula

Cucula, in the Oltrarno, is Michelin-recommended and cooks in a more contemporary register, which makes it a good counterpoint to a weekend among the truffle stalls.

Learn more

Macelleria Tordi

Macelleria Tordi has been the family butcher on Viale Don Minzoni since 1974, directly opposite Abitazione, which makes it the first stop for a November dinner cooked at home.

Learn more

MARRAKECH

November in Marrakech is mild and clear, with days in the low twenties and cooler evenings. The Fès festival fills Jemaa el-Fnaa for a week, but High Atlas is an easy morning away, and on the roof at Dar Al Dall the new pool is open.

Midweek Marrakech:
Save 30% from Sunday to Wednesday

Save 30% from Sunday to Wednesday, on stays at Dar Al Dall and make the middle of the week feel rather less ordinary. Until December 15th.

Book Now

The Roof at Dar Al Dall

The new pool at Dar Al Dall opened this October on the roof of the house, the latest chapter in a restoration that took seven years and has bathing at its centre.

Learn more

Marrakech International Film Festival

From 20 to 28 November, the Marrakech International Film Festival returns for its 23rd edition, with red carpet evenings, masterclasses, and free public screenings in Jemaa el-Fnaa.

Learn more

Imlil and the High Atlas

Two hours from the medina, Imlil sits at the foot of the High Atlas, and in November the cooler, clearer air makes it the most comfortable time of year for the guided hike through the valley.

Learn more

Al Fassia Guéliz

Al Fassia in Guéliz is run entirely by women as a workers' cooperative, and in autumn the slow-cooked shoulder of lamb is the dish to order.

Learn more

Pétanque Social Club

In Guéliz, Pétanque Social Club occupies a restored pétanque hall from the 1930s, its original court still in the garden, and in the cooler months its fire pits make it the natural place to end an evening.

Learn more

Featured in the Michelin Guide · October 2026.

MICHELIN GUIDE 2026

READ WHAT THE EDITORS OF WALLPAPER AND MONOCLE ALREADY KNOW

Condé Nast Traveler · The Telegraph · Wallpaper* · Livingetc · design anthology · THE ARTHAUSS · TEMPUS · Wine Spectator · LUXX · bridges · FASHION · SECRET TRIPS · MONOCLE · DECO · ELLE · TASTEMAKERS

Exquisite residences. Off-menu experiences. This Time Tomorrow, where will you be?
thistimetomorrow.io

Follow us for more stories on Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn

See our latest reviews: Florence and Marrakech

Google ★★★★★ 5.0